

U.S. District Court for the District of Nebraska Inclement Weather Notice - North Platte

If inclement weather is predicted, jurors who live outside the North Platte area should bring enough clothing and personal items to accommodate a stay that may last up to five days. Jurors may claim reimbursement for lodging and meals if inclement weather makes travel to the juror's residence impracticable, but the jury clerk or another authorized court employee must pre-approve the juror's stay in North Platte.

For special announcements regarding late start time or closing due to weather conditions, please call 1-866-220-4381, option 7, no earlier than 6:00 a.m., Central Time, to receive the latest weather-related announcements.
