

60.1 Motions for Reconsideration.

- (a) In General. Motions for reconsideration of an order are filed and considered under this rule and Nebraska Civil Rule 7.0.1. A party's failure to observe this rule may be considered an abandonment in whole or in part of that party's position on the pending motion.
- (b) Time. A party must file a motion for reconsideration within 14 days after the court files the order, unless the party shows good cause for a later filing.
- (c) Standard of Review. Motions for reconsideration are disfavored, and the court will ordinarily deny them without a showing of (1) manifest error in the prior ruling or (2) new facts or legal authority, neither of which could have been brought to the court's attention earlier with reasonable diligence.
- (d) Consecutive Motions. A party may file only 1 motion for reconsideration of a particular order, even if the court modifies the order or changes the language in the order.
- (e) Magistrate Judges. A magistrate judge may docket a motion for reconsideration of a magistrate judge's order as objections raised before the district judge, under Nebraska Civil Rule 72.2 and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A).
