FACULTY

Daniel E. Klaus is a partner at Rembolt Ludtke LLP, where he chairs the Litigation Practice Group. Dan received his B.A. degree in Political Science from Nebraska Wesleyan University in 1977, and received his J.D., with distinction, from the University of Nebraska, College of Law, in 1982. After practicing for three years in Denver, Colorado, he returned to Nebraska to join Rembolt Ludtke where he practices exclusively in litigation with an emphasis on business and commercial disputes. For the past 20 years, Dan has also taught the Pretrial Litigation course at the College of Law which focuses on the practical application to the pretrial process of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Nebraska Court Rules of Pleading in Civil Cases, and the Nebraska Court Rules of Discovery in Civil Cases.
