Bankruptcy Appeals

On 9/14/2010, the Judicial Conference approved a recommendation from the Committee on Court Administration and Case Management to amend the policy on privacy and public access to electronic case files by restricting public access to documents in bankruptcy appeal cases filed in the district courts for bankruptcy cases filed before 12/1/2003. All documents not flagged as written opinions that have a case filing date prior to 12/1/2003 and a case closure date of one or more years ago will be automatically restricted to case participants, public terminals, and court staff.

Sealed Documents

Docket text: “This docket entry and PDF document are sealed pursuant to an order of the court and/or legal authority governing sealed filings. Access is limited only to the court.”

Notice: CM/ECF does not send electronic notice; however, electronic access may be given upon order of the court.

Child Victim and Child Witness Transcripts

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3509(d), transcripts filed in court that disclose “the name of or any other information concerning” a child victim or a child witness in criminal cases shall be filed under seal. These transcripts are not available on the public terminals and are not made remotely accessible to case participants or the public. A case participant may review the transcript in camera in the clerk’s office or purchase it from the court reporter or transcriber for redaction purposes.

Public docket text: “In accordance with 18 U.S.C. Section 3509(d), this transcript is sealed.”
