VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

As noted in Part I, I held two powers of attorney, one each for two different adult children both of whom reside in different foreign countries. These persons are not dependent upon me for support. For each adult child, I exercised control over a checking account. I was not aware of and did not exercise control over reportable items. Prior to making this disclosure, I conferred with Ralph Watkins, a staff member of the Committee on Financial Disclosure, and I have made this disclosure consistent with the advice that I received from him. Although advised that I need not identify the persons for whom I hold the powers of attorney and while I have also been advised that I am not required to provide other identifying information, I have personally elected to do so. On December 1, 2011, I took senior status. In addition, on December 1, 2011, I elected to begin taking social security retirement benefits. In 2011, I also began to draw down on my Thrift Savings account with a transfer to a Wells Fargo account. Like many judges, I received "back pay" due to the Barker litigation. Those funds were placed in my Wells Fargo account, thus causing the value to increase.
