Summary of 2006 Local Rules Amendments

General

- 1.2(e)   adds the exact location of credit card information on the court's Web page; authorizes the clerk to refund duplicate filing fees paid electronically with credit cards using pay.gov
- 1.2(f)-(I)   adds the exact location of various information on the court's Web page
- 1.3(b)   adds the exact location of attorney registration forms on the courts' Web pages
- 1.6(f)(3)   changes the provision on camera cell phones to reflect the Judicial Council policy adopted in October 2006
- 1.8(d)(8)   removes the requirement that the court appoint the disciplinary agency of the Nebraska Supreme Court to investigate misconduct allegations or to prosecute disciplinary proceedings

Civil

- 4.1(a)   authorizes the clerk's office to issue summonses electronically
- 5.3(a)   adds taxpayer I.D. number to list of items subject to mandatory redaction and removes home addresses
- 5.3(b)   adds education records to list of items subject to discretionary redaction
- 5.3(c)   clarifies that documents subject to the E-Govt Act are restricted rather than sealed; changes procedure to request restricted access to an unredacted document; allows counsel to provisionally restrict access pending court's order
- 7.1(a)   clarifies that briefs are filed separately and will not be attached to or incorporated in motions or indexes of evidence
- 7.1(c)   prohibits a moving party from filing a reply brief if it failed to file an initial brief
- 7.5   to conform with changes to CM/ECF's sealed functionality, changes procedure for requesting an order to seal; allows counsel to provisionally seal pending court's order
- 7.6   authorizes clerk's office to enter a text-only order denying without prejudice all pending motions when a case is referred to bankruptcy or to mediation
- 40.1   permits any party to file a motion opposing the place of trial chosen by a plaintiff, third-party plaintiff, or removing party
- 45.1   clarifies that an adverse party's objections to a subpoena for a nonparty are not to be filed as a motion
- 54.1   adds the exact location of taxation of costs information on the court's Web page
- 72.3(a)   allows parties objecting to a report and recommendation or responding to such an objection to rely on briefs and evidence previously submitted to magistrate judge
- 72.3(d)   removes a wordy construction
- 79.1(f)   gives counsel 10 days to withdraw trial exhibits and requires counsel to maintain the exhibits for one year

Criminal

- 12.1(a)   pursuant to Zedner, removes subpart (4) that had required a defendant to waive the right to a speedy trial when moving to continue trial
- 12.3(a)   pursuant to Zedner, removes subpart (4) that had required a defendant to waive the right to a speedy trial when moving to continue trial; also changed "continuance" to "extension" in subpart (1)
- 12.3(b)(1)   to conform with NECivR 7.1, states that failure to file a required supporting brief may be deemed abandonment of a motion
- 12.3(b)(3)   to conform with NECivR 7.1, requires parties moving for discovery or disclosure to detail attempts to resolve impasse with opposing counsel
- 12.4   to conform with changes to CM/ECF's sealed functionality, changes procedure for requesting an order to seal; allows counsel to provisionally seal pending court's order
- 49.3(a)   adds taxpayer I.D. number to list of items subject to mandatory redaction
- 49.3(b)   adds education records to list of items subject to discretionary redaction
- 49.3(c)   clarifies that documents subject to the E-Govt Act are restricted rather than sealed; changes procedure to request restricted access to an unredacted document; allows counsel to provisionally restrict access pending court's order
- 55.1(e)   requires counsel to retain exhibits offered but not received into evidence
- 55.1(g)   wording changed to conform with NECivR 7.5 and 79.1
- 57.3(a)   allows parties objecting to a report and recommendation or responding to such an objection to rely on briefs and evidence previously submitted to magistrate judge
- 57.3(d)   removes a wordy construction