FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE LYLE E. STROM ANNOUNCES TRANSITION TO INACTIVE SENIOR STATUS

Judge Lyle E. Strom has announced his transition to inactive senior status, effective December 1, 2017, following 32 years of very distinguished service on the federal district court bench.

Judge Strom's legacy of service to the court, the bar, the legal education system, and the community--especially youth, is unparalleled. He has led by example during his 64 years in the legal profession, always promoting collegiality, civility, professionalism, and good humor. His many contributions to the federal court, including the Hruska Courthouse which Judge Strom envisioned and pursued during his tenure as Chief Judge (1987-94), will long endure.

We are grateful to Judge Strom for his leadership, his friendship, his humanity, and for the very high bar he set for those who follow.
