

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The United States District Court for the District of Nebraska is pleased to announce the reappointment of the Honorable Michael D. Nelson to another eight-year term as a full-time magistrate judge, starting July 1, 2025. “Nebraska’s federal court and the citizens of Nebraska are fortunate that Judge Nelson is continuing his valued service to our court and the legal community,” said Chief Judge Robert F. Rossiter, Jr.

The district judges also thank the Merit Selection Panel, led by Dean Joshua Fershée of the Creighton University School of Law, for its diligent efforts in this reappointment process, including its review of the positive and supportive comments received from the practicing bar relating to Judge Nelson and his retention.
